HOW TO APPLY FOR THIS EXAM: The Application Form for State Police Trooper Trainee and copies of this exam announcement can be found on the Internet by accessing the DAS Internet Site: <http://lawexam.ct.gov>. The special Application Form for Protective Services Trainee/State Police Trooper Trainee must be completed and filed on the DAS Law Enforcement Exam Website. The Internet application takes approximately ten minutes to complete and provides immediate confirmation that your application has been submitted. It also allows you to select the date, time and location of your written test. Free Internet access is available at the Department of Labor Connecticut Works Centers and at most town libraries. The standard State of Connecticut CT-HR-12 application will not be accepted for this exam. All applications must be submitted online no later than 2:00 pm EST on May 29, 2012. Please note incomplete applications and applications received on incorrect forms will not be accepted.

SELECTION PROCESS: The following elements may be part of the State Police Trooper Trainee selection process depending upon how far you advance through the process and whether a conditional offer of employment has been extended to you. More details about these elements will be made available if you are scheduled for them.

Written Test - multiple choice questions to measure such areas as: observation, judgment, problem solving, logical reasoning ability, reading comprehension, interpersonal skills, written communication skills and work behaviors, styles, preferences and interests. The written test will be held on selected dates from May 31, 2012 – June 11, 2012. Candidates will be required to take the written test on the date, time and location for which they are scheduled.

Physical Fitness Assessment – exercises to measure flexibility, muscular endurance, and cardiovascular endurance (i.e., sit and reach, sit-ups, push-ups, and 1.5 mile run).

Polygraph Examination – inquiries concerning the use of illegal drugs, the physical abuse of other persons and other criminal activities, as well as employment and driving history.

Background Investigation – comprehensive review of employment, education, training, criminal, motor vehicle and credit histories.

Psychological Evaluation – combination of written tests and an interview to assess suitability for employment in law enforcement.

Medical Evaluation – comprehensive physical examination, including drug screening.

Structured Interview - a structured interview to assess oral communication skills and qualifications and suitability to be a State Police Trooper Trainee.

Successful completion of all phases of the selection process means that you are eligible to be considered for final appointment as a Trooper Trainee. NOTE: Candidates will be required to demonstrate a successful level of physical fitness as a final condition for entering the training academy.

OUT-OF-STATE APPLICANTS: Out-of-state applicants are advised that they may need to visit Connecticut numerous times, depending on how far they advance through the selection process.

STATE POLICE TRAINING PROGRAM: If you are selected as a Trooper Trainee, you will enter the physically and mentally demanding training program at the State Police Academy. The program lasts up to 6 months and includes classroom instruction, practical exercises and physical conditioning. Recruits are required to live at the Academy Monday - Friday. After graduation from the program, Trooper Trainees are assigned to one of 11 State Police troops throughout the state for a probationary period and on-the-job training.

MORE INFORMATION: For more information about the job of a State Police Trooper, employment benefits, the written test, the physical fitness test, and the job of a State Police Trooper visit the Department of Administrative Services' Internet site at <http://lawexam.ct.gov> select Protective Services Trainee/State Police Trooper Trainee. Print and carefully read the Connecticut State Police Trooper Trainee and Protective Services Trainee Selection Process General Information and Preparation Guide.

APPLICANTS ON ACTIVE MILITARY DUTY: Special testing accommodations may be made for applicants on active military duty. Please contact 860-713-5208 for more details. Documentation will be required.
